History for a very small price!

The very first book with recorded
History of Isabella County dated
July,
1876!

By special arrangement with John Cumming, emeritus Director of the Clarke Historical Library at Central Michigan University, the 150th Committee of the Mount Pleasant Area Historical Society has secured permission to reprint this priceless piece of our Isabella County heritage – faithfully reproducing the booklet recounting the Fourth of July 1886 address by premiere local historian Isaac A. Fancher on the occasion the 100th anniversary Centennial celebration. This booklet served as the base for Fancher’s definitive 1911 local history Past and Present of Isabella County.
